

Meditation Essentials

Meditation ISN'T:

- Stopping your thoughts
- Only for hippies / monks
- Sitting cross legged on the floor
- Time consuming
- Spiritual and/or religious

(... but it can be some of those things if you would like!)

Meditation IS:

- A powerful tool for noticing, observing and therefore letting go of habitual patterns and responses
- Concentration of the mind – bringing the mind to rest on one focal point or area of thought
- The cultivation of mindfulness and awareness
- A confrontation with the voice(s) in your head
- An opportunity to connect with your sense of self, your inner awareness, your heart, something bigger

Why Meditate?

- Stress Management
- Decreased anxiety/depression
- Pain management
- Increase memory/efficiency
- Lower blood pressure and cortisol
- Boost immune system
- Increase brain gray matter
- Increase melatonin
- Switch from fight/flight/freeze to rest/digest
- Alter gene expression
- Develop relationship to your thoughts
- Ability to observe thoughts, emotions and fears rather than responding to them
- Spiritual connection
- Increase compassion, love and tolerance
- Decrease anger, fear, doubt
- Moving from the heart rather than the head
- Connection to core self
- Transcend limiting beliefs

“Trying to tame the mad monkey mind is, in many ways, like a flabby middle-aged businesssman trying to recover his youthful profile on the step machine. It hurts because we’re just not used to it.

We are confronted by the consequences of decades of bad habits and ill-discipline. We are forced to use mental muscles we didn’t even know existed. Wouldn’t it be easier just to give up, and instead enjoy a nice big internal talkfest, garnished with disjointed reflection and lashings of fantasy?” - David Michie

Obstacles to Meditation:

- "I can't stop thinking"
- "I don't have time"
- "I tried but didn't see results"
- "I don't know how to do it properly"
- "I don't like being alone or silent"
- "I forgot for two days, I suck at meditation, I quit"
- "I don't need meditation"

To overcome obstacles

Practice, practice, practice!

But with non-attachment, without judgement and with compassion

Some Types of Meditation

1) CONCENTRATION

2) MINDFULNESS

3) VISUALISATION

4) MANTRA

5) CONTEMPLATION

Concentration

Concentration

Focusing the mind on one point and giving the monkey mind bananas. Tend to be preparatory techniques, especially in those with very busy minds.

Techniques include:

- Counting backwards
  - Candle gazing
- Pranayama techniques
  - Mantra
- Walking Meditation

Walking Meditation

- Meditation in action
- Full awareness on the task at hand
- Options:
  - Count steps to 10
  - Synchronise breath
  - Mantra "I. Am. Here. Now"
  - Focus on a movement that you would normally take for granted

Mindfulness

Jon Cabat Zinn Video

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=w8Nsa45d0XE>

Thought Labelling

The process of acknowledging and labelling your thoughts

Allows for a review of your habitual thoughts and breaks the cycle of rumination

Thoughts are like the breeze or the leaves on the trees or the raindrops falling. They appear like that, and through inquiry we can make friends with them. Would you argue with a raindrop? Raindrops aren't personal, and neither are thoughts. Once a painful concept is met with understanding, the next time it appears you may find it interesting. What used to be the nightmare is now just interesting. The next time it appears, you may find it funny. The next time, you may not even notice it. This is the power of loving what is. – Byron Katie

Mantra

Mantra

Mantra = mind instrument

So Ham / Ham Sa:

That I Am / I Am That

Visualisation

Metta – Loving Kindness

Invoking a warm hearted feeling and directing that feeling towards yourself and others

Studies have shown that metta increases positive emotion, increases ability to ward off depression, gives life purpose and decreases illness.

Developing a Regular Practice

Sutra 1.12

abhyasa vairagyabhyam tat nirodhah

The fluctuations of the mind are controlled through abhyasa (practice) and vairagya (non-attachment).

Practice: cultivating the lifestyle, actions, speech and thoughts that lead us in a positive direction and letting go of the things that lead us away from where we want to go.

Non-attachment: Doing all of this without attachment to the results.

Abhyasa

Exercise:

- Where do I want to go?
- Which actions, words, thoughts lead me toward where I want to go?
- Which actions, words and thoughts lead me away from where I want to go?

* The most complicated thing about a home practice is just getting on the mat. Roll out your mat and sit on it - the rest will come, you need no plan, no special outfit, no particular circumstance - you just need a mat and your butt sitting on it.

Six Keys to Success

- * “Enthusiasm, perseverance, discrimination, unshakeable faith, courage, avoiding the company of common people, are the six causes (keys) which bring success in Yoga”. Hatha Yoga Pradipika

Enthusiasm: Why do I practice?

Perseverance: What are the obstacles and how will I continue to practice anyway?

Discrimination: Understanding what is taking you closer to a deeper practice and everything that is taking you further away.

Faith: In yourself, the teacher and the teachings

Courage: What makes you feel vulnerable?

Avoiding common people: Do the people around you bring out the best version of you?

Tips

- Set an alarm / put a reminder in your calendar / visual reminder
- Make a space!
- Utilise apps like Insight Timer and Headspace
- Begin still and end still
- Set a realistic commitment
- Consider the practice you need based on age, lifestyle and time of life

* “When you do yoga at home every day, it becomes no different from taking a shower. You wouldn’t dream of not taking a shower, and you don’t congratulate yourself for doing it every day. So doing a daily practice doesn’t have to be a heroic activity you impose on yourself. It’s just a simple, natural pleasure.”

* Mark Whitwell

Studio Practice

- Know the difference between styles:
- Ashtanga: strong, dynamic set sequence
- Iyengar: focused on props and alignment
- Vinyasa/Hatha: extremely varied
- Yin: long passive holds
- Gentle yoga/restorative yoga/slow flow: more slow, restorative practices
- Collaborative Maroubra, Sukha Mukha Bronte, Earth and Sky Marrickville, Qi Manly and Freshwater

Poems / Quotes

"The Guesthouse" by Rumi

- * This being human is a guest house.
Every morning a new arrival.
- * A joy, a depression, a meanness, some momentary awareness comes as an unexpected visitor.
- * Welcome and entertain them all!
Even if they are a crowd of sorrows, who violently sweep your house
empty of its furniture, still, treat each guest honorably.
He may be clearing you out for some new delight.
- * The dark thought, the shame, the malice.
meet them at the door laughing and invite them in.
- * Be grateful for whatever comes.
because each has been sent as a guide from beyond.

"The Mighty Oak Tree" by Johnny Ray Ryder Jnr

A mighty wind blew night and day
It stole the oak tree's leaves away
Then snapped its boughs and pulled its bark
Until the oak was tired and stark

But still the oak tree held its ground
While other trees fell all around
The weary wind gave up and spoke.
How can you still be standing Oak?

The oak tree said, I know that you
Can break each branch of mine in two
Carry every leaf away
Shake my limbs, and make me sway

But I have roots stretched in the earth
Growing stronger since my birth
You'll never touch them, for you see
They are the deepest part of me

Until today, I wasn't sure
Of just how much I could endure
But now I've found, with thanks to you
I'm stronger than I ever knew

Body Love Poem by Hollie Holden

* Today I asked my body what she needed,
Which is a big deal
Considering my journey of
Not Really Asking That Much.

* I thought she might need more water.
Or protein.
Or greens.
Or yoga.
Or supplements.
Or movement.

* But as I stood in the shower
Reflecting on her stretch marks,
Her roundness where I would like flatness,
Her softness where I would like firmness,
All those conditioned wishes
That form a bundle of Never-Quite-Right-Ness,
She whispered very gently:

* Could you just love me like this?
